DOOR PRIZE

Perhaps you haven't given much thought to your home's internal doors – unless they're truly awful, they tend to fall far down in the list of priorities for a renovation. But they can play a big part in brightening a room, making a space feel larger and offering an instant facelift – especially when they look as good as Lualdi's minimalist Rasoline 55s swing door. Combining the lightness of aluminium with the light-reflecting quality of a mirrored finish, this design is elegant and understated – perfect for an elevated bathroom scheme.
